Strengthening the partnership between the police and the Kemah community

A free course for all Kemah residents and business owners

Offered by the Kemah Police Department

CPA is a 12-week, 24-hour course that allows citizens a view of the inner workings of the police department, in an academic environment where ideas are openly exchanged in an effort to increase community solidarity. It provides the department an opportunity to be more aware of individual concerns and perceptions so we may be more responsive to future community needs.

Classes run from 7 to 9 p.m. for 12 consecutive Tuesdays.
